More particularly, the corporation is formed for the purpose of providing a corporate organization through which and by means of which the operations and activities of a church, may be accomplished. Its purpose is to act as the Mother Church, which is the ultimate ecclesiastical authority of Scientology. More particularly, the corporation is formed for the accomplishment, without limitation, of the following more specific purposes:

- d. To foster and enhance the spiritual welfare of its followers, which shall be deemed to be Scientologists throughout the World.

[Editor's Note: The sentence highlighted above is the only unique language in CSI's statement of purpose compared to RTC's statement of purpose in its Restated Articles. CSI is the Mother Church, the ultimate ecclesiastical authority of Scientology. This is consistent with LRH's trust agreement and Assignments of Marks & Advanced Materials.]

ARTICLE FOUR

Power of the Corporation and Limitations Thereon

In the conduct of its activities and the accomplishment of its purposes, the corporation shall have, shall enjoy, and may exercise, to their fullest extent, all powers which nonprofit corporations are permitted by law to have and to enjoy; PROVIDED HOWEVER, that:

a . The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious purposes, and no part of the income or assets of the corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any private party or individual; and

d. The corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation described in Section 170 (c) (2) , contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or successor statutes of similar import.

ARTICLE FIVE

Number of Directors of the Corporation

The number of the corporation's Directors may not be increased above five (5) or decreased below three (3) without amendment of the corporation's articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE SIX

No Members of the Corporation

This corporation shall have no members.

[Editor's Note: And by this is meant a class of corporate members, which can be voting or non-voting, not parishioners. Nonprofit corporations must specify whether it has corporate members, and if so, whether they are voting members.]

ARTICLE SEVEN

Disposition of the Corporation's

Assets Upon Dissolution

In keeping with the religious purposes to which the corporation's property is irrevocably dedicated, upon the winding up and dissolution of the corporation, and after payment or adequate provision is made for its debts and obligations, the corporation's remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more nonprofit funds, foundations, trusts or corporations which are organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes, and which have established or are entitled to receive tax exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or successor statutes of similar import.

ARTICLE EIGHT

Amendment of the Corporation's

Articles of Incorporation

Notwithstanding any provision of the law permitting their amendment upon the affirmative act of less than all of the corporation's incumbent directors, the articles of incorporation of this corporation may be amended only upon both the unanimous act of the Trustees of the corporation, if any, and the unanimous vote of the Directors of the corporation then incumbent.

[Editor's Note: Of course there are trustees; they are appointed for life and cannot be less than five of them. (See, Bylaws of CSI, Article VI, Section 2.) They can only remove themselves (Article VI, Section 7) and there is no provision in the bylaws to eliminate them. Indeed Articles VI and XIII (bylaws cannot be altered "the qualifications of Trustees") seem to preclude it. Basically, Restated Article Eight means that the articles of incorporation can be amended only on the unanimous vote of both trustees and directors.]

3. The foregoing amendment and restatement of articles of incorporation has been duly approved by the Board of Directors.

[Editor's Note: Oops. Not sufficient. Need the unanimous vote of trustees as well.]

4. The foregoing amendment and restatement of articles of incorporation has been duly approved by the unanimous vote of the voting members in accordance with Section's 5812 and 5813 of the Corporations Law.

[Editor's Note: The drafter of this document wasn't in present time. According to Article Six (herein above), there are no members. Apparently meant to say trustees.]

Signatures to original (and was executed on 20 May 1982) by:

Rev. Heber Jentsch (sic), President and

Rev. Sandy Brennan, Secretary

[Editor's Note: Heber's last name was spelled correctly above, but not here.]
